

BIOGRAPHY

DAMIEN JONATHAN CALDWELL

Damien J. Caldwell is the CEO and founder of ASG National, a technology-driven solutions firm serving the property & casualty insurance sector. With more than 25 years of leadership in claims management, risk management, and fraud prevention, he is also the founding President of the iFraud Foundation, a nonprofit driving collaboration and innovation to combat insurance fraud.

Damien is a co-founder and President of the Long Island Claims Association, where he leads industry education on emerging risks, fraud trends, and AI solutions. A passionate advocate for modernization and data-driven strategies, he frequently speaks on topics such as centralized claims platforms and leveraging technology to improve outcomes.

Beyond the industry, Damien is an active community leader, having built the South Huntington Youth Lacrosse program and established athletic scholarships for local students. He is also a credited film/TV producer, martial artist, and—above all—a devoted husband and father.
